

Invictus Tours: Cancellation & Refund Policy

We understand that circumstances may arise that require a traveler to cancel their participation in a tour. Due to the advance commitments and non-refundable payments required to secure flights, accommodations, transportation, activities, and other tour arrangements, the following cancellation and refund policy applies to all travelers:

Cancellations More Than 90 Days Before Departure

For cancellations made more than 90 days prior to the scheduled tour departure date, travelers will receive a refund of all amounts paid to INVICTUS, less the per-person deposit, which is non-refundable.

Cancellations 60–90 Days Before Departure

For cancellations made between 60 and 90 days prior to the scheduled tour departure date, travelers will receive a refund of all amounts paid to INVICTUS, less:

- The non-refundable per-person deposit; and
- A $750 per-person final booking and cancellation fee.

Cancellations Less Than 60 Days Before Departure

For cancellations made less than 60 days prior to the scheduled tour departure date, all amounts paid are non-refundable, and the traveler will forfeit the full tour price.

This policy applies regardless of the reason for cancellation, subject to any rights or remedies that may be required by applicable law.

Travel Insurance – Strongly Recommended

International travel represents a significant financial commitment, particularly for families with multiple travelers participating in a tour. INVICTUS strongly recommends that all travelers consider purchasing comprehensive travel insurance to help protect their financial investment against certain unforeseen circumstances that may prevent or interrupt travel.

Travel insurance may provide coverage for circumstances such as trip cancellation or interruption, medical emergencies, travel delays, and lost or delayed baggage, depending upon the particular policy purchased and its terms, conditions, exclusions, and coverage limits.

Many families participating in previous tours have elected to purchase travel insurance through Allianz Travel Insurance. Travelers may wish to review Allianz's OneTrip Prime Plan, along with other available travel insurance options, to determine which coverage is appropriate for their individual circumstances.

All travel insurance is purchased independently by the traveler. INVICTUS does not provide, underwrite, administer, or guarantee travel insurance coverage. Travelers are responsible for reviewing the terms, conditions, exclusions, coverage limits, and eligibility requirements of any policy before purchasing.

For information regarding Allianz Travel Insurance, please visit their website or contact them directly:

Allianz Travel Insurance

Website: www.allianztravelinsurance.com

Telephone: 1-866-884-3556

Travel insurance premiums vary depending on factors including the total trip cost, number of travelers, ages of travelers, selected coverage, and other applicable factors.